

London, 28th August 1854.

Mr Lloyd Garrison Esq. —

My dear Sir,

122.

I have just time to send a few lines in the New York

Harvey back by Mr. Adams, which I have the pleasure of forwarding you by William Wells Brown. You would much gratify the excellent Author, — who belongs to the best school of Abolitionists — by kindly noting his production in the Liberator

In justice to myself I must unfortunate say ~~that~~ several typographical errors occur in the brief Chapter which I contributed; but they will be corrected in the second edition.

With true respect

believe me,

Dear Sir,

Very truly yours,

Fred. W. Chapson

P.S. Your old, but young friend Miss Millie Thompson desires me to send her very best regards to you. Our dear friend Mr Thompson would also, send another message of the same kind, I doubt not, but he has not yet returned from the field of his recent labours.

You would greatly oblige me if you would cause that number of the Liberator containing the notice to be sent to

A. G. Adams Esq

Dispensary House.

Rochester

Kent
England.
